➤ A Latham & Watkins team led by Andrew Clubok and Susan Engel got a rare dismissal from the bench in a stock-drop suit against Meta Platforms Inc. This particular suit targeted company statements related to an allegedly anticompetitive agreement with Google, the impact of Apple's privacy changes on Meta's business, Meta's new video product called Reels, and disclosures surrounding former COO Sheryl Sandberg's compensation. The team representing Meta also includes partner Melanie Blunschi, associates Nicholas Rosellini, Theodore Galanakis and Elizabeth Cheng.

➤ A separate Latham team won more than $26 million for OWLink Technology, an optical wireless technology and high-speed data transmission company based in Irvine, California, in a contract dispute with Taiwan's Cypress Technology. Federal jurors in Los Angeles found last week that Cypress violated its exclusive business management agreement with OWLink. The Latham trial team representing OWLink included partners Michele Johnson, Eric Leon, associates Caroline Fish, Sarah Burack and Chuanyi Qi.
